

JOB TRANSITION SERVICES PROGRAM

INFORMATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES
WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DIVISION

Updated - May 2010

Purpose

The purpose of the Job Transition Services Program (JTSP) is to provide professional assistance, guidance, counseling, and training to employees who are affected by the layoffs. JTSP seeks to ease the impact of these changes and to promote compassionate and effective transitions. These services are being provided by DHR, along with the counseling staff at City College of San Francisco (City College).

There are two targeted groups of employees for the JTSP:
Group 1— Employees who are transitioning to new jobs as a result of layoffs or displacements (bumping).
Group 2— Employees who are completely laid off or displaced from City service; no placement is available.

JTSP Services

There are 2 parts to the JTSP services— training workshops by DHR, and career counseling services provided by City College. Individuals may choose to participate in any or all of the following:

Group 1—13 hours of service
